

How to Install and Use CCleaner

by LINDA ROSENCRANCE Jul 2, 2014, 1:26 PM

CCleaner, developed by London-based software maker Piriform, is a utility for computers running Microsoft Windows or Mac OS X or later. It can remove potentially unwanted programs from a computer, and clean out unnecessary or temporary benign files, freeing up hard disk space.

On Windows PCs, CCleaner also fixes problems in the Windows Registry, and can uninstall software and select Windows startup programs.

CCleaner will run on any Mac running OS X 10.5 Leopard or later (including PowerPC-based Macs), but we'll be showing how to install and use it on a Windows machine, which needs to be running Windows XP or later.

1. Navigate to <https://www.piriform.com/ccleaner>.

2. Click the Download button.

3. Click the Download button under the CCleaner Free column on the next Web page.

4a. If Internet Explorer is your browser, click "Run" in the gold-trimmed dialog box at the bottom of the next webpage.

4b. If Mozilla Firefox is your browser, click Save File if a confirmation dialog box appears.

Then click on the downward-pointing arrow in the top right of the browser window, and double-click on "ccsetup.exe." (The numeral suffix to "ccsetup" will vary according to the version available.)

The screenshot shows a browser window with the address bar at `piriform.com/ccleaner/download/standard`. A download notification bar is visible, showing a file named `ccsetup414.exe` (4.5 MB) downloaded from `piriform.com` at 3:28 PM. A green circle highlights the downward-pointing arrow in the top right of the browser window, and another green circle highlights the download notification bar. Below the browser window, the page content includes a "Thank you for downloading CCleaner" message, a "START DOWNLOAD" button, an email subscription form, and a section titled "Do you like CCleaner?" with links to other tools: Defraggler, Recuva, and Speccy.

The CCleaner main console window is divided into Windows and Application tabs. On the right is where information or results from operations are displayed. Beneath that are the Analyze and Run Cleaner buttons.

10. Scroll through the Window and Applications tabs, checking the options for files you want examined. Make sure you “uncheck” cookies in all Window and Applications! Delete your cookies, and you will lose all your logins and associated passwords

12. Click Analyze to generate a list of the temporary files that can be deleted.

13a. If you'd like to delete everything CCleaner finds, click Run Cleaner.

13b. If you don't want to delete them all, then select each individual item you want to remove, then right-click and select "Clean."

14. Click OK in the confirmation pop-up window to delete the files.

CCleaner can also correct Registry errors, uninstall software and determine which programs launch upon Windows startup. We can't recommend that you alter the Registry, but here's how to use the other features.

15. Click Tools and Uninstall in the CCleaner main screen to generate a list of installed applications.

16. Select the application you'd like to remove, then click Run Uninstaller in the top right of the CCleaner screen.

17. Click Yes if a confirmation prompt dialog box appears.

18. Click Tools and Startup in the CCleaner main screen to generate a list of startup applications.
